Breast cancer is the second most common cancer in the world. There are 216 chemicals known to be linked to breast cancer. There are at least 1000 carcinogenic, endocrine disrupting chemicals and mutagens, cause cancer.

There is a significant body of evidence now about which we should all have The Right to know that Breast Cancer Is an Environmental and Occupational disease pharmaceutical intervention favoured by industry. Evidence. Action.

The Health and Environment Alliance (HEAL) is a leading platform of health and safety representatives and other partners working to address the inter-connection between health and the environment in order to support policies that keep both safe.

The Health and Environment Alliance (HEAL) is a leading platform of health and safety representatives and other partners working to address the inter-connection between health and the environment in order to support policies that keep both safe.